

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
HOUSTON DIVISION

JOHN DOE,	§
Plaintiff,	§
	§	CIVIL ACTION 4:20-cv-02985
WILLIAM MARSH RICE UNIVERSITY,	§
Defendant.	§

DEFENDANT'S OBJECTIONS TO PLAINTIFF'S DESIGNATIONS OF THE DEPOSITIONS OF EMILY GARZA AND DONALD OSTDIEK

Defendant William Marsh Rice University (“Rice”) makes the following Objections to Plaintiff’s Designation of the Depositions of Emily Garza and Donald Ostdiek.

Rice objects to all designations from both depositions fall squarely within the definition of hearsay. See FED. R. EVID. 801(c) (“‘Hearsay’ means a statement that:

- (1) the declarant does not make while testifying at the current trial or hearing; and
- (2) a party offers in evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted in the statement”). “[H]earsay is not admissible...”. FED. R. EVID. 802.

The prior testimony exception to the hearsay rule is inapplicable. Plaintiff has subpoenaed both declarants’ attendance at trial. See FED. R. EVID. 804(a)(5), (b)(1) (testimony at earlier hearing or trial remains hearsay if proponent can procure declarant's trial attendance). And the parties have not agreed to the use of depositions at trial even though the witness is available. Cf. Court Procedures and Practices C(6) ("The Court will accept the parties' agreement to use a deposition at trial even though the witness is available"). The transcripts are hearsay, and therefore inadmissible.

Plaintiff's designations should also be excluded in toto pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 403, which allows this Court to exclude evidence "if its probative value is substantially outweighed by a danger of... undue delay, wasting time, or needlessly presenting cumulative evidence." FED. R. EVID. 403.

Plaintiff has designated all but approximately eight lines of actual testimony by Ms. Garza out of her 206-page deposition transcript. He was twice as judicious in designating Dr. Ostdiek's deposition testimony, where he left 16 lines of testimony undesignated out of Dr. Ostdiek's 182-page transcript. Allowing Plaintiff to introduce both the deposition testimony he has designated and call the witnesses live to testify would also be tremendously time-consuming, duplicative, and wasteful. Plaintiff does not get to call each witness twice.

Rice additionally objects to specific designations on the following additional grounds.
